Corsages for Missions

Corsages for Missions began to be promoted as a method of raising money to help suffering people throughout the world.

Everyone who receives a Corsage for Missions wears it proudly, for it signifies love and honor to the one who wears it and a helping hand to the cause of missions around the world, which it will bless and benefit. Wear it proudly when you receive it and then take it home and use it – as a bookmark, as a decoration, and as a reminder of Missions around the World.
